Brides- and grooms-to-be set for Lansmore Wedding Expo

GABORONE – Lansmore Masa Square is set to get the attention of brides- and grooms-to-be with their inaugural Wedding Expo, to be held on Saturday 20th April 2013 on the prized Lansmore rooftop. The highly anticipated Expo will attract a number of high profile exhibitors including local and international fashion designers and exhibitors.

Amongst the designers expected to showcase their brands are Lebo Merafhe, Black Trash, and South African fashion house, Fundudzi by Craig Jacobs. In addition, popular DJ's DJ O'Neal and DJ Kellz are set to entertain throughout the duration of the event. The event will see Lansmore transformed into wedding wonderland, with the entire building demonstrating its inherent perfect as a wedding venue.

Said Lansmore Masa Square Sales and Marketing Manager Miss Botho Mogami, "Lansmore has already become a destination for a variety of special occasions and events. The purpose of the Wedding Expo, then, is to cater for those looking to celebrate their big day in a new and exciting venue. We've got a fantastic line up of events to look forward to, including designers showcased on the rooftop, a bridal gown fashion show in the Masa piazza, and wedding cake and dinner set ups as well as a mock church service set up in the conference area. We're bride-central this weekend!"

Those attending the Wedding Expo can anticipate cake and champagne sampling within the renowned la Touch de Provence restaurant and drinks at Espretto. The culmination of the day sees a designer fashion show kicking off in the evening. Lansmore Masa Square quickly established a mandate to offer guests and patrons an all-round lifestyle experience since the hotel's opening in 2012 and the Wedding Expo is expected to further highlight the realization of this mandate.

"Every wedding is different and every wedding venue is different, and this is why we felt showcasing the Lansmore wedding was key. We want to show people what a uniquely beautiful and ethereal wedding set against a Lansmore canvas looks like," concluded Mogami.

With free entry for all guests, the event aims to give brides- and grooms-to-be, as well as those just looking to plan ahead for their big day, a memorable peek into what a true Lansmore wedding has to offer.

The Lansmore Masa Square Wedding Expo will take place on Saturday 20th April 2013.
